

LIMERICK BOOK

BY AMY HEMMINGS AND

ALICE GRAYSON

*There was an old man from Japan,
Who went off to visit his gran,
He went on a train,
Which drove him insane,
So he wanted to swallow a pan.*

SOLD IN AID OF

C . L . I . C .

15p

OR MORE

21.

*There was an old man from North Norwich.,
Who fell in a cold bowl of porridge,
The man said " Oh yuk !
Who made this foul muck,
I think it must be old Miss Cloridge .“*

*There was a young man from Mexico,
Who owned a shopping centre called Tesco,
One day came a mouse,
To look for a house,
And the place was soon deserto.*

*There was a young farmer from Leeds,
Who swallowed six packets of seeds,
It soon came to pass,
He was covered in grass,
And couldn't sit down for the weeds.*

*There was an Australian gent,
Some diamonds to his girlfriend he sent,
The girl's name was Jane,
Such a lovely bright name..
Now they 've bought a small cottage in Kent.*

*There once was a terrible old cat,
Who badly grumpy and fat,
But it seems to me,
He's fit as a flea.,
As he races his neighbour called Pat.*

*There was an old lady from Kent,
Who spent her whole life in a tent,
She stole some money,
bought lots of good honey,
But failed to pay all of the rent.*

*There was an old man from East China
Who went to a fine fancy diner
He took his best girl,
There gave her a whirl,
They kissed on an ocean liner.*

*There was an old man from North Spain,
Who had a peculiar brain,
He walked up the walls,
Ate green rubber balls,
And was never quite normal again.*

*There was a daft bunch called Class Six,
Who got up to lots of wierd tricks,
There were two brill girls,
Whose teacher thought pearls,
But they're quite mad on strange limericks.*