

Proverbs/Idioms

rdw

Never judge a book by its cover
A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush
All that glitters is not gold
Take care of the pence and the pounds will look after themselves
When the cat's away the mice will play
You can lead a horse to water but you can't make it drink
There's no smoke without fire
Many hands make light work
Too many cooks spoil the broth
It doesn't matter what happens when we have gone
I just had to get it off my chest
To have got a finger in every pie
Honesty is the best policy
Never look a gift horse in its mouth
Fine feathers make fine birds
Cheats never prosper
Experience is the best teacher
To make a mountain out of a mole-hill
.The sooner the better
From rags to riches
People who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones
The early bird catches the worm
Don't count your chickens before they are hatched
One swallow doesn't make a summer
To keep one's fingers crossed
To make hay while the sun shines
He takes the biscuit (the worst of all)
To get the wrong end of the stick (misunderstand)
To poke one's nose in(to) (to interfere)
To be over the moon (extremely happy)
You are a pain in the neck
To be in the red
This car has seen better days
Do take the weight off your feet (formal: Sit down)
Let's make a move